

Govt appoints RBSA as valuation advisors for disinvestment of Air India

By Mihir Mishra, ET Bureau | Nov 24, 2017, 11.29 PM IST

0 Comments

NEW DELHI: The government appoints RBSA as Valuation Advisors to Government of India on Air India, sources said.

"RBSA Advisors has been appointed as an exclusive Valuation consultant to Government of India on this Disinvestment of Air India and its Subsidiaries," sources said.

AI is a wholly owned Government of India Company and the government plans to sell its stake in the carrier.

AI is a wholly owned Government of India Company and the government plans to sell its stake in the carrier.

Related

Air India CMD Rajiv Bansal gets 3 months extension

The Airline has five subsidiaries and a joint venture (JV) company, which include Air India Express Limited (AIEL), Air India Air Transport Service Limited (AIATSL), Air India Engineering Services Limited (AIESL), Airline Allied Service Ltd (AASL), Hotel Corporation of India (HCI) and JV with AI/Singapore Air Transport Services.

Help a 2.5 yr old baby girl to fight cancer
KETTO

Looking for highly engaged audiences?
Times Group

Recommended By Colombia

The government intends to sell Air India and its subsidiaries separately to maximise its earnings from the sale process.

0 Comments

Read more on Stake Sale RBSA Privatisation Government Aviation Air India

Top Trending Terms

- Reliance Jio
- Rahul Gandhi
- Aadhaar
- Card
- Demonetisation
- GST Rates
- Vijay Mallya
- Gujarat Elections 2017
- Aadhaar
- GST
- Business News
- Yogi Adityanath
- GST FAQs

SPOTLIGHT

Brands

Indian arms major revenue driver for global automakers

Maruti Suzuki's sales have increased 17% (to around 826,000 units) to outpace Suzuki's performance in Japan, where volumes grew 7.2% in the first half of the fiscal.

- Gujarat farmers getting highest rates for milk
- Chocolate makers lose some appeal in a 'slowing' India

Are you an Investment Adviser? List your business for free & grow

CREATE FREE LISTING